
North Allegheny Athletic Hall of Fame

Joseph Drzenovich Award for legendary service to North Allegheny Athletics

Joe Bullick, 2004 Recipient

Joe played sandlot baseball as a young man, and was with the Washington Senators (Major League Baseball, American League) in Wintergarden, Florida in 1951. He was offered a Class D professional contract, but opted for sandlot baseball in the Butler County League, where he played for 13 years. He was coached by the legendary Pirate third-baseman Pie Traynor, and played at Forbes Field in a 1949 All-Star game.

Joe managed the Warrendale Baseball team in the Butler County sandlot league; in 1972 Warrendale won the league championship with a record of 27 wins, 1 loss. Many of Joe's players were North Allegheny graduates.

Joe became Ingomar Elementary school's head custodian in 1957, and became NA's Custodial Superintendent in 1967. He coached the 9th grade softball team for 16 years, the 7th/8th-grade softball team for 2 years, and the girls' golf team for the past 19 years. His teams won numerous section championships and 8 WPIAL championships; 5 of the players he coached played on North Allegheny's PIAA championship team.

Joe also helped to establish NA's first boys' and girls' bowling teams.

For the past 10 years Joe has been North Allegheny's historian and curator, establishing the first-ever museum in a Pennsylvania school district.

Joe's lovely wife, Emma (they have been married for 52 years) has always supported Joe throughout his career.

BOB AUSTEN

Coach

After a distinguished athletic career at Hampton High School and Clarion University, Bob came to North Allegheny where he coached track and cross-country 33 years, beginning in 1969. He started the junior high school cross-country program at North Allegheny. The program started out with about 20 boys and, by the time Bob retired, had over 125 boys and girls running for NA. His team was often referred to as Austen's Army. His overall career record in cross-country was 441 wins and 4 losses. Most of North Allegheny's future long-distance WPIAL and PIAA champions got their start with Bob.

Bob moved to the senior high level, concentrating on high jump and javelin. In 1988 he became responsible for the distance runners, while continuing to coach high jump.

Prior to his retirement, Bob was a highly successful science teacher at Peebles Elementary and at Carson Middle School.

2004 Athletic Hall of Fame Bob Miller Award Outstanding Supporter of North Allegheny Athletics

Bob Glancy

Bob, a native of Pittsburgh's Northside and the North Hills, graduated from North Catholic in 1966. After serving in the U.S. Army during Vietnam, he returned to Pittsburgh to work in his family's construction firm. After many successful years, he has become president and owner of R.A. Glancy & Sons, Inc.

Bob's firm constructs hospitals, commercial and industrial buildings. In recent years, he has constructed and renovated over thirty school projects including many at North Allegheny (be competitive bid). Some of those projects include Ingomar Elementary, Ingomar Middle School, Carson Middle School, North Allegheny Intermediate High School, and the Bus Garage. There were five projects alone just at the North Allegheny High School which included the stadium, the gym and auditorium expansion, the new ball fields, Newman Stadium and the Baierl Center.

Bob and his wife Mary Ann have been married for 30 years and reside in McCandless Township. Their sons Rob, NA Class of 1995, and Matt, NA Class of 2001, have joined Bob in the family owned business.

Bob worked for many years in the McCandless Athletic Association, including providing much of the effort for the construction of the multi-field complex behind Vincentian homes. He has worked diligently to produce our splendid athletic facilities including the dugouts at Marshall Middle School softball field and the old baseball field at North Allegheny High School. During the construction of NAI, he donated the materials to expand the new gymnasium to permit the installation of 400 seats. Bob's leadership as general contractor of the Baierl Center allowed this facility to be built as well as the steel to allow the construction of the running track. The large activity room is donated in his firm's name.
