The Joseph Drazenovich Award for Legendary Service

David Givens

2008 Recipient

The Joseph Drazenovich Award for Legendary Service to North Allegheny Athletics is presented this evening to Mr. Dave Givens. "Legend" is defined as, among other things, as "a collection of stories about an admirable individual." Many in this room could contribute to that storybook...time precludes that from occurring.

Dave has filled a multitude of roles in his service to North Allegheny Athletics. Among these are serving for thirteen years as Athletic Faculty Manager at North Allegheny Intermediate High School; being a co-founder of the North Allegheny Hockey team, where he also served as Assistant Varsity Coach as well as 7th / 8th Grade Coach, announcer, and scorekeeper.

Dave has served and continues to serve in a variety of support capacities at North Allegheny athletic events. He has been a PA announcer for soccer, basketball, wrestling, track, gymnastics, and football, and lacrosse as well as a timer at many events over the wide spectrum of Tiger sports. He has sold tickets as well as taken tickets.

Dave Givens has contributed mightily to North Allegheny Athletics. It is an honor to present him with the Joseph Drazenovich Award for Legendary Service. Dave, please accept this award, and please be sure that it "arrives home safely."

The Bob Miller Award for Outstanding Support of North Allegheny Athletics

The Brede Family, 2008 Recipients

The Bob Miller Award is given in recognition of "Outstanding Support of North Allegheny Athletics." The award this year goes to a family that exemplifies that phrase to the highest degree. The Brede family has been and remains today a cornerstone of the North Allegheny fan base. They are at virtually every North Allegheny athletic event, adding their support to the Tigers with sincere enthusiasm. Claire and her children, daughter Jennifer, a 1993 North Allegheny graduate; and Marty, a 1995 North Allegheny graduate, were an integral part of the North Allegheny athletic culture throughout Jen and Marty's scholastic days and have continued that role ever since. Marty has used, both during his days as an NA student and beyond, his talent for videography to serve a variety of Tiger athletic programs, and his work has been instrumental in both future game preparation as well as fan enjoyment via NATV.

It is with pride that we honor this evening the Brede family with the Bob Miller Award for Outstanding Support of North Allegheny Athletics: Claire, Jennifer, and Marty Brede.
