The Joseph Drazenovich Award for Legendary Service

Dr. Lawrence Butterini 2011 Recipient

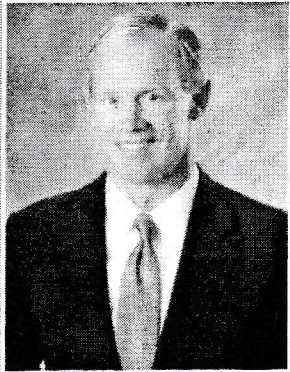

Dr. Larry Butterini was a triathlete, a football captain and a Big 33 team member at Avonworth. While attending Muskingham University, Larry played four years of football.

In his 36-years as a career educator, Dr. Butterini has been a teacher, a coach, a counselor, a program director, and a superintendent. He is also a 4-year veteran of the United States Marine Corps. Larry is best known and respected as North Allegheny's distinguished senior high school principal. His outstanding attendance and enthusiastic support of the Tiger athletic program, along with his support for extracurricular activities, is truly legendary.

No one can forget his relentlessly upbeat homilies at the athletic banquets. He had us all saying all-le-LOO-yah; it's GREAT to be alive! His parables to the students – always featuring the exploits of Willie the Whiner and Wilma the Winner – have served as inspiration to legions of student-athletes. The man who made a big difference at North Allegheny – Dr. Larry Butterini – this year's recipient of the Joseph Drazenovich Award for Legendary Service.
