James Beierle 2012 Recipient

James M. (Jim) Beierle (deceased) North Catholic High School – Class of 1966

Jim spent his life dedicated to his family and the North Allegheny Community. Jim worked 16 years (1989 – 2005) as a school director in leadership roles. His favorite saying was "Life is Good" and he was an advocate for a balance between academics and athletics whereby students could participate in activities of their choice, whether in athletics, music, or other art forms, and thereby receive a well-rounded education.

North Allegheny's widely acclaimed academic curricula, top of the line facilities, and renovated buildings were of primary interest to Jim.

All of the Beierle children, Joe, Dr. Jessica B. Boyer, Jennifer, Jackie and Dr. James, benefitted from their academic education as well as activities and athletics as students in the North Allegheny Schools.

Jim's wife Mary Ann will be accepting the award in his honor.
