

North Allegheny Athletic Hall of Fame

The Joseph Drazenovich Award for Legendary Service

The Joseph Drazenovich Award for Legendary Service is named for the late Joseph "Joe Draz" Drazenovich, who in addition to being the North Allegheny Director of Athletics was a three-year football head coach, as well as a twelve-year track head coach. During his tenure as Director of Athletics, North Allegheny increased its number of varsity sports from ten to twenty-two. An outstanding athlete in his own right, having started and been an All-East selection in football at Penn State, as well as having lettered two years in lacrosse, Joe left his impact throughout his athletic career.

Mark and Carole Shepard 2014 Recipients

Although Mark (North Catholic 1975) and Carole (Knoch 1974) did not attend North Allegheny High School, they have been Tiger fans since moving into the district in 1985. Their three children, Stephen (2003), Andrew (2006), and Maureen (2008) were active within the school district and Mark & Carole became two of the districts biggest fans!

Mark served as NABA Commissioner when the boys were in middle school and Carole served Allegheny North Swim Club (ANSC) in various capacities for 7 years. Together, they served as President of the North Allegheny Swimming and Diving Boosters (NASDBA) from 2002 – through 2006 and were key participants in the establishment of the North Allegheny Water Polo program. They were also instrumental in leading the effort to make major improvements to the ventilation system in the NASH Natatorium. Their many years of leadership in ANSC, NASDBA and the Water Polo Program helped build the foundation of a program that has experienced unparalleled success over the past 10 years (15 combined WPIAL Titles for Swimming & Diving, 1 State Championship Title for Swimming & Diving, 1 State Championship Water Polo Title).

Their contributions were not limited to the swimming pool. Carole served as a representative to the Unified Boosters Organization (UBO) and is a former Chairperson of Kennywood Day. She also served on the Fundraising Committee for the NA Band Parents, as a past chair of the NA Band Golf Outing. Along with Corky Semler and other NA community members, Carole established the Peter Wei Cai Memorial Scholarship Fund in 2008. The fund awards a $1000 scholarship to a North Allegheny Swimmer or Diver who donates a $500 memorial award to a service organization. This is done in memory of Peter Wei Cai, a teammate of both Stephen's and Andrew's.

Sons Stephen (in 2001) and Andrew (in 2006) swam as part of the WPIAL Champions in Swimming & Diving – putting Mark & Carole in the bleachers of the natatorium. Daughter Maureen was a 4 year member of the NA Dance Team and Mark & Carole became season ticket holders for NA Football. They have continued to support both programs over the years but have also been attendees at basketball, baseball, volleyball and soccer games – boys and girls.

Mark & Carole continue to support NA Athletics although they have no children in the immediate area. Stephen attended the University of Notre Dame (played water polo) and lives in New York City. Andrew attended Indiana University (in Bloomington, Indiana and played water polo) and lives in Chicago and Maureen attended UCLA and lives in Los Angeles.

North Allegheny Athletic Hall of Fame

The Bob Miller Award for Outstanding Support of North Allegheny Athletics

Dr. Lawrence Bozzomo 2014 Recipient

Dr. Bozzomo played football, wrestled and ran track in high school; he never mentioned any distinction he earned in athletics, saying that he was just happy to participate.

His wholehearted support of scholastic athletics was evident throughout his service to the North Allegheny School District. His attendance at Tiger contests was legendary, and it was often said that he “bled black and gold”. This enthusiasm was noticed by faculty, coaches and students, encouraging them to the pursuit of excellence. He was committed to total quality in all aspects of education, and was reflected in North Allegheny’s success in academics, athletics and artistry. Dr. Bozzomo had the most pleasure in watching all students perform in sports, music and academics.

His service as superintendent saw advances in curriculum development, faculty involvement in programs promoting excellence in education, staff development, non-traditional funding initiatives, cost-effective employee health insurance, and advances in infrastructure and technology for students, faculty, support staff and administrators.

Dr. Bozzomo and his wife have two children: Lawrence Jr. and Nicole. Both live in the Philadelphia Area.

Dr. Bozzomo’s accomplishments also include:

- Educational leader of three prominent school districts with over 26 years of distinguished service;
- With a district enrollment of 2,800 students, 94% of the graduates entered college;
- Consistent record of high student achievement and performance in academics, athletics, and the arts;
- Instrumental in developing programs that have been nationally recognized in publications such as The Wall Street Journal, Scholastic Coach, Readers’ Digest, Redbook, U.S. News & World Report and Newsweek;
- Music programs honored at state and national level in Pennsylvania and New York including invitation to 1999 Tournament of Roses Parade in Pasadena, California, performance at Carnegie Hall, and designation as a Grammy Signature School;
- Schools have been cited by the Department of Education National Blue Ribbon award eight times at the elementary, middle and high school level;
- Accepted by the National Consortium of Schools of Specialization in Math, Science, and Technology (only non-magnet public school to receive this honor);
- Received Excellence in Education Award from the United States Congress for an innovative middle school project;
- As Superintendent of the Manhasset School District, oversaw a professional and support staff of 550 with an annual budget exceeding $65 million;

2014 North Allegheny Athletic Hall of Fame Inductees

Carrie Hucko Lee

Cross Country, Track

Class of 2000

Carrie was a stand-out cross-country runner, and specialized in distance events in track. In 1999 she finished 11th in the PIAA Cross-Country Championship meet, while the Tigers ran to state titles in 1998 & 1999. Carrie still holds the NA Cross Country course and school record of 17:36. On the track team, she qualified for the state meet 3 times and took 5th in the 1600-meter run; she was the first female Tiger runner to run a sub-5-minute mile. Carrie was named "Class of 2000 Top NA Female Athlete."

Carrie continued her athletic career at Miami University of Ohio before transferring to Duquesne University. At Duquesne, she earned bronze at the indoor Atlantic-10 Championships as a member of the school-record-setting 4 x 800-meter indoor relay team; she also won silver at the outdoor conference championships, again in the 4 x 800. Carrie was the inaugural recipient of the Atlantic 10 Sporting Award, as selected by the Conference's senior administrators. Carrie holds the Duquesne school record in the indoor mile, indoor 3,000 meters and outdoor 3,000 meters; she was also a member of the Duke's record setting outdoor 4 x 1500 meter relay team. Carrie was also nominated by her teammates to be the captain of the cross-country and track teams while at Duquesne. In addition to her athletic accomplishments, Carrie also received the following honors for her academic performance:

- Atlantic 10 Commissioner's Honor Roll
- Duquesne's Director of Athletics Honor Roll
- Academic All-Conference
- Dean's List every semester at Duquesne

Carrie has maintained a strong passion for running, competing in numerous road races and running in the Boston Marathon twice. Carrie believes her greatest running achievements come when she has the opportunity to coach new runners, stating that it has been a way for her to give back to the running community, which has so greatly given to her.

Carrie works as a Sales Development and Client Partnership Executive at Google and is a longtime supporter and volunteer for the Special Olympics and Girls on the Run. Carrie lives in Hoboken with her husband, Randy Lee, a Class of '98 North Allegheny graduate, and their dog Hudson. She is the proud daughter of Marian and Ed Hucko, and sister of Mike, Steve and Kim.
